SUNDAY OPENING MATTER.

An Effort Made to Bring the Question Up Again.

A Heated Discussion Takes Place and the Subject Made a Special Order for Today-First Foreign Ex-

CHICAGO, May 24 .- People outside Chicago are apparently beginning to realize that the World's fair is really open, and usiness at the ticket office is beginning to fairly beom. Hotel proprietors too are realizing the fact as their rooms are rapidly filling up. Since the opening day nearly three-quarters of a million people have paid for admission to the white city, and the attendance seems on a steady increase. The first of the European encursions to the fair arrived today, one French and one German party, and the managers say more will come each week. An effort was made at the meeting of the national commission today to have the Sunday opening question brought up again. Commissioner Hundley claimed that when the commission substituted the minority report of the judiciary committee for the majority report, and then declined to adopt the recommendation of the minority report for certain amendments to the directory's Sunday opening rule, the majority report must come up for action. A heated discussion followed and the matter was made the special order for tomorrow. Immediately on assembling again. Commissioner Hundley claimed the matter was made the special order for tomorrow. Immediately on assembling of the national World's fair commission today Commissioner Massey, of Delaware, tendered his resignation as a member of the judiciary committee. The cause of the resignation was the rejection of the majority report of the committee on Sunday closing by the national commission yesterday. After long discussion the commission postponed action on Massey's resignation till to-morrow.

The British flag was displayed with more than usual prominence today on the British, Canadian and Indian build-ings in honor of Queen Victoria's birth-day. The occasion was celebrated farther this evening with a banquet at the Virginta hotel.

The day was bright and beautiful, all that could be wished by visitors, and a large number took advantage of it to enter in through the gates into the white city. One of the leatures of the day was the dedication of the Maine state building. Hon, H. C. Burleigh, president of the Maine board of managers, made an address, delivering the building to the state, and Governor Cleaves accepted it, in form dedicating it to the uses of the people.
